LEXINGTON, VA. Sept. 10.—The Democratic Executive Committee of Rockbridge county have decided in favor of the secret ballot for the primaries. While the question of the manner of voting was being considered, a poll of the committee men present showed that the sentiment was 11 to 4 in favor of the secret ballot against the viva voce plan. This method was agreeable to the legislative candidates from Rockbridge and the district, namely, Messrs. 7. S. Craig and R. W. Sterrett, the floater candidate from the district composed of the county, and Mr. B. W. Sterrett, the floater candidate from the district composed of the counties of Bath, Highland and Rockbridge and the city of Buena Vista.

Mr. McClung Fatton, chairman of the Republican Executive Committee of Rockbridge county, has called a mass-convention for the 30th of September at Lexington to nominate candidates for the Legislature. Delegates will be cieted to the Floater Convention to meet at Milibero, October 3d to nominate a floater candidate for the Legislature from the district. The Republicans will also nominate a candidate from the 22d Senatorial

OPEN CAMPAIGN IN APPOMATTOX

The Democratic legislative campaign in Virginia: was opened at Appomattox

The Democratic legislative campaign in Virginia: was opened at Appomatiox Courthouse yesterday, where speeches were made by Congressman H. D. Flood and Capinin Camm Patteson, candidate of the Democratic party for the State Senate. After the two Democratic speakers had made addresses, Mr. W. Courtney Franklin, the Republican candidate, made an address in the interest of his candidacy.

Yesterday was Appomatiox court day, and there was a fairly large attendance of farmers and county men generally. A meeting of the Confederate veteran camp of the county was held earlier in the day, at which Colonel R. B. Poore, the commander of the camp, addressed the veterans. He spoke especially along the line of urging the veterans to secure the muster rolls of the Appomatiox troops in the Civil War. The attendance of the men who wore the gray and who are still wearing it in hair and beard, was large and the meeting interesting.

After the veterans concluded their session. Congressman Flood made a ringing speech, discussed the issues of the campaign briefly, but clearly and forcefully. In concluding, he presented Camm Patteson, to whom he paid a fine tribute in introducing him as the Democratic candidate for the State Senate.

(By Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., September 10.—

Minister Leishman cabled the State Department from Constantinople that the French ambussador has demanded the romoval of the Governor of Belrut, and that other foreign representatives probable will do the same. Mr. Leishman is replace the Governor by some one more capable of preserving order and of giving more efficient protection to American citizens and interests. In this course he has the approval of the Btate Department. Minister Leishman transmitted a communication from Consul Ravndal, at Belrut, in which the latter said that the situation there was quieter. Many shops, he said, were still clased, but the people were getting over the scarce of Sunday.

The Navy Department has received a cablegram from Rear-Admiral Cotton, dated Beirut, vesterday, stating that the arrival of the Turkish Governor-Qeneral from Damascus has restored confidence. The Governor-General has warned the local authorities that he will hold them responsible for disturbances. Admiral Cotton says that the clay was quiet Tuesday night and business improving.

he fact last night, as has been before demonstrated, that they can entertain. About 700 people, men, women and children, enjoyed their hospitality on the steamer Pocahontas last night, upon the occasion of the annual moonlight excursion to Dutch Gap.

From the time the big boat, with its sion to Dutch Gap.

From the time the big boat, with its merry throng, turned its nose toward the Cedar Works, with the moon peeking up from behind the eastern clouds, until it left the Chemical Works far in the rear, with the moon 45 degrees above the horizon, there was a good time.

From the time Tom Hicks, Lee Peters, Morgan Mills and Harry Glenn began to sing "The Moon Shines Bright Tonight Upon the Wabash." until they dropped into "Under the Bamboo Tree," there was not a dull moment.

Archie Burke, Frank Anthony, John Epps and Pat Griffin served sandwiches and tee cream like professional wait-resses at Kirkwood's, and the only trouble was that somebody overlooked the spoons, and you had to eat your ice cream in your hat or drink it through a straw.

Fred Jurgens, Sam Cohen, Billy Mann, Henry Grimmell, Clarence Cosby and the reat of the bunch told the pilot how to steer the boat, and when Tom Hicks, who had dismissed the other members of the quartette, sang "Old Black Joe," "Dixie" and "Maryland, My Maryland," the boat struck up against the wharf, and the happy evening, with not a thing to mar it, came to a close.

MR. T. W. WOOD WEDS

Mrs. Anna N. Ingram Became His Bride at Blackstone.

At Blackstone.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

BLACKSTONE, VA., September 10.—A quiet church marriage was solemnized here at 1:20 o'clock this afternoon in St. Luke's Episcopal Church, when Mrs. Anna Neblett Ingram, of Manchester, became the bride of Mr. T. W. Wood, of Richmond.

There were no cards, but many of the friends of the bride in this, her home section, gathered to witness the interesting event which would launch her for the second time upon the sea of married life.

The bridal party arrived from the home of Hon. Nathanlel Matthews, in Lunenburg county, where the bride has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Matthews, for a few weeks, about 12:30 o'clock, and the bride-to-be was driven to the home of Mr. H.

Miss Annie Seay presided at the organ and rendered very sweetly the marches upon the entry and exit of the bridal party.

After the ceremony the bride returned to the home of Mr. Seay, where she changed her bridal dress for a handsom traveling suit, and later, at 2:45 P. M., Mr. and Mrs. Wood took the train for Lynchburg.
